LOCAL STUDENT WINS PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP TO UM

MISSOULA –

DarAnn Dunning of Otter is one of three students chosen for a $7,500 Presidential Leadership Scholarship at The University of Montana starting fall semester.

She competed in a field of 210 qualified applicants who were judged on high school grade-point average, college test scores and interviews with an eight-member evaluation committee. Her scholarship will be renewed annually for four years provided she maintains high academic standards.

Dunning graduated from Powder River County High School with a 4.0 GPA. She plans to major in communication studies at UM.
